Carrier delivery times

As you are probably aware, most carriers are currently struggling with high levels of demand, covid 19 related absence and driver shortages.

Due to the above, no carriers (including royal mail) are guaranteeing next day deliveries.

We are still despatching, where required, on a next day delivery and we are experiencing that most items do in fact arrive next day, but that a significant number of parcels seem to be taking 2-3 days.

Hopefully the situation will improve in due course.
